

Kontaktdon - M12

The industrially approved M12 connecting solutions are more and more considered on devices for the railway industry.

An often mentioned handicap is the contact application to the wires and strands. Usually soldering or Insulation-displacement connections (IDC) for field assembling is provided and used. According to long term experiences crimped contact applications offer best possible performances regarding endurance under vibrations.

Varianter

BESKRIVNING

Kontaktdon - M12